What's makes the Canadian Mix investment different than other term investments?

This investment isn't your grandmother's term deposit. This is a Market-Linked Guaranteed Investment, which really means that it's an investment in a group of companies that, depending on how successful those companies are in the market during the investment, will provide you with a return on the money you invested at the beginning of the term. So this red and white product has the potential to earn more than a standard term deposit.

Will investing in this help me reach my financial goals?

This product is great for members who believe strongly in the home ice advantage of Canadian businesses and wish to see their personal finances grow along with Canadian companies. Members who have a saving goal in mind and do not plan on accessing these funds for the next 5 years could benefit from this investment. If you think that 5 years is too long to wait for those funds Conexus offers other investment products to fit your timeline.

What happens if there are market disruptions?

Conexus is able to determine the proper actions to take if the markets do experience periods of upheaval. For instance, if market trading is suspended, Conexus can choose to postpone the start date of the index value of the investment.

What happens when the investment term is due?

Once your investment is due, the cash value due at that time will be moved to an account of your choosing. Your advisor will be in touch with you to talk about what you plan on using that money for next, either reinvest or move it into one of your accounts.

Can I take my money out of the investment before the term is due?

Conexus is unable to provide an early redemption option for this investment. But don't worry, exceptions can be made.
